

Kim & Co Terms and Conditions

Kim & Co is pleased to provide a professional laundry service to you (“you” or the “customer”), subject to your compliance with and acceptance of the terms and conditions set forth below. Please read the following provisions carefully. Your use of Kim & Co indicates an acceptance of the terms and conditions set below and are therefore bound by them. This agreement is strictly between Kim & Co and its customers and does not in any way constitute or imply any relationship with any other parties.

Delivery Schedule

The delivery of laundry to you will include a pre-agreed time and date. As we are a small business we are limited in relation to the areas where we can deliver. As a result, you may be refused the option for delivery even if the order does exceed the minimum delivery charge of £15. If there is an agreement made where the pick-up is in an area where we do not cover, a surplus charge may be applied for fuel costs.

If you wish to change a pre-agreed time with us, please contact us either through our telephone number: 01686 626964 or email info@newtownlaundryservice.co.uk. Kim & Co are not responsible for a customer failing to provide dirty laundry at the agreed time. A rearranged time can be agreed with us or the customer has the option to drop off their laundry. It is the customer’s responsibility to ensure that our employees are able to gain access to their laundry if we do a collection. Kim & Co will not be responsible for any laundry left unattended.

If you wish to collect your laundry from us, collection is available Monday to Friday, between 8:30am and 5pm. If the customer does miss the timeframe, they will be able to drop off their laundry the following business day. The minimum time period we allow for laundry to be cleaned is 48 hours. More complex laundry may take longer because of the special treatment that is needed for it. Kim & Co has the option to issue a longer waiting period if the business is in a busy period, as 48 hours becomes difficult to adhere by.

Procedure and Terms

For customers with an account, Kim & Co can issue laundry bags and tag them with the customer’s name. Account customers must OPT-IN for this service. If the customer wishes to leave our service, they must return the laundry bags as it is the property of Kim & Co. Alternatively, the customer can purchase the bags from us for a reasonable price. It is a requirement that once the customer either opts out or leaves Kim & Co, they are to return the bags. Failure to do so will result in an invoice being sent for the purchase of the bags.

If the customers have not opted in for this service, they must provide their laundry in a reasonable alternative to a laundry bag. The customer agrees not to include any of the following that are in or attached to any of the items to be cleaned or inside any of the customer’s laundry bags: (i) non-washable items, (ii) items that are labelled for hand washing and/or dry-cleaning only, or (iii) any other items not meant for laundering or dry-cleaning. If the customer wishes to include laundry for dry cleaning, it must be kept in a separate bag and labelled. Alternatively, the customer can process their dry cleaning in the on-site shop. The customer is responsible for any and all damage caused by any items left in the customer’s clothing or laundry bag that cause damage to the clothing of any customer, the cleaning machines, or any other property of Kim & Co or its customers. Kim & Co is not responsible for, and shall not pay for, any loss, damage or theft of items left unattended by the customer for pickup or delivery. The customer is responsible for ensuring their laundry is left in a safe environment, and that a Kim & Co employee can obtain the laundry bag.

Because Kim & Co is a professional laundry service, we handle our laundry with reasonable care. Kim & Co will not be responsible for any defects caused by the manufacturer, such as weak material; or previous staining. Kim & Co will not be responsible for the damage of special instruction laundry if the customer was made aware of the dangers by a member of staff, and that the customer signed a declaration slip declaring they were made aware of the dangers, but still wished Kim & Co to wash the laundry.

Loss, Damage and Storage

In the rare instance that your laundry is lost or damaged by Kim & Co, we will issue you a refund or credit for the value of your laundry, as specified in the Consumer Rights Act 2015, section 24. Kim & Co will be happy to give you the appropriate information on how to address the issue.

We are not liable for any pre-existing damage to laundry. Any pre-existing damage must be brought to our attention when the laundry is brought into the shop. The customer must sign a declaration slip or give verbal consent to our member of staff to continue laundering.

If you believe Kim & Co is in possession of an item but we are under the impression it is not on the premises, please detail us: the size of the item; the colour of the item; the brand of the item; when you had given us the item. If, after seven (7) days, the item has not been found, we may compensate you for the loss item at no more than half the value, as we believe the blame is shared between Kim & Co and the customer.
